PROCEDURE FOR CLIENT CATEGORY DETERMINATION

4. The Bank employee shall collect information on the Client's or potential Client's status, knowledge, experience, skills and other criteria provided by the Law and these Rules by means of a prepared questionnaire and / or other means. Based on the information collected, verified and analyzed, the Bank employee shall classify the Client as a Retail Client, Professional Client or Eligible Counter Party in accordance with the criteria established in the Rules.
5. Information on assignment of the Client to a particular category is specified in the special part of the Agreement signed by the Bank and the Client.
6. Prior to classifying the Client as a Professional Client without separate recognition under item 1.2 of the Rules, the Bank shall notify him in advance that the Client is considered a Professional Client based on information available to the Bank and will not be subject to any investor protection measures unless otherwise agreed between the Bank and the Client. If the Client - a legal entity - can be considered as a Professional Client according to item 1.2 of the Rules, and it agrees with this, it shall be classified as a Professional Client.

7. The Bank shall determine the category of Professional Client for the Client in accordance with item 1.3 of the Rules only upon the Client's request. In such a case the Bank must make sure that the Client meets the criteria provided for in item 1.3 of the Rules. The Bank shall have the right to request the Client to submit documents supporting the fulfilment of the specified criteria. If the Client confirms in writing that he / she is satisfied with the Professional Client's wish to be recognized as a Professional Client, the Bank employee shall classify him / her as a Professional Customer.
8. If the Client does not meet the criteria of the Professional Client category or qualifies as a Professional Client but does not agree to be considered a Professional Client, then the Client is classified as a Retail Client and is subject to the highest level of his/her interest protection.
9. The Bank shall determine the Eligible Counterparty Category for the Client only upon the Client's own request to be assigned to this category. Prior to entering a transaction with the Client recognized as an Eligible Counterparty or mediating such a transaction, the Bank shall obtain clear confirmation from the counterparty in the Agreement concluded with the Client that it agrees to be considered an Eligible Counterparty. Such consent may be of a general nature or adjusted to the respective transactions. Client's consent shall be deemed to be expressly stated when he/she signs the Agreement, which provides that he/she shall be classified as an Eligible Counterparty. If the Client can be considered an Eligible Counterparty but the Client does not agree, he/she shall be classified by the Bank's employee as a Professional Client which ensures a higher degree of protection of interests to the Client.
10. If the Client cannot be classified as an Eligible Counterparty or a Professional Client in accordance with the information provided, it shall be classified as a Retail Client and shall be subject to the highest level of interest protection.
11. The Client must inform the Bank if the information based on which the Client was assigned to a particular category change. In this case, the Client category shall be changed upon signing the amendment to the Agreement. When the Bank becomes aware that the Client no longer meets the conditions under which he/she has been recognized as a Professional, all Retail Client protection measures shall apply, and the Bank shall inform the Client thereof.
12. The Client shall be entitled to request a higher level of protection of his/her interests than provided for in the respective Client category or to change the category assigned to him/her.
