

Artea Bank

Q4'25 and FY2025 Financial Results

February 26, 2026

Key Financial and Strategic Highlights

Financial Performance:

- NFCI Growth: Solid net fee & commission income, driven by Asset Management and Renovation businesses
- Cost Normalisation: Operating expenses rose in 2025 due to one-off core banking and rebranding costs, partly offset by early savings in 4Q, with cost optimisation ongoing
- High Asset Quality: Maintaining a high-quality credit portfolio and resilient risk profile
- Financial Resilience: Robust capital base ensuring stability for both reinvestment and distributions
- Record Shareholder Returns: Proposed 70% total payout - the highest in company history

Strategic Milestones & Innovation:

- Rebranding: Our new brand, Artea, has been very well received by clients and investors, strengthening brand loyalty and market position
- Core Banking Upgrade: Project on track and within budget; testing underway with a second half 2026 launch expected
- Modernisation Leadership: Selected by EIB for a third €625m fund, reinforcing leadership in energy efficiency
- Debt Capital Markets: Solidified Baltic leadership with over €240m in corporate bond originations
- Product Innovation: Launched Lithuania's first quarterly-coupon retail bond fund and the "Global Equity Index Plus Fund"

Notes:

(1) During the year ended, the Group revised the presentation of its statement of profit or loss, reclassifying certain insurance-related income and expenses, see Appendix for the full explanation

(2) ROE calculated taking annualized YTD result divided by trailing 4 quarters equity

(3) Adjustments exclude costs related to the core banking system upgrade, rebranding, the new office building, windfall taxes, as these are considered non-recurring

(4) Includes Asset Management and Modernization Funds AuM

- Net interest margin (NIM) remained under pressure in a low base rate environment
- Net fees & commission income (NFCI) showed good growth, driven by continued strong performance in the Asset Management and Renovation businesses
- Operating expenses rose in 2025 due to one-off costs from the core banking system upgrade and rebranding, while early savings have already been realized in 4Q mainly in marketing
- Cost optimisation program continues, with initiatives underway to further streamline our cost base
- Achieved a net profit figure of €60.7m in 2025
 - Excluding one-off items, the profit would have been €72.5m and RoE 12.4%
- Loan book +8% YoY with main growth areas being corporate and mortgage segments
- Deposits +17% YoY, cost of deposit funding remained unchanged, while demand deposits grew faster than term deposits

Net Interest Income

Key Highlights

- Net interest income remains under pressure in a low base rate environment
- Quarterly decline in asset yield was mainly result of excess liquidity being employed in low margin instruments
- Asset yield is expected to remain at current levels in Q1 after which we expect gradual improvement
- We are actively managing our cost of funding, which is helping to offset the impact of lower asset yields

Net Interest Margin (NIM) Dynamics

Net Interest Income Development QoQ

Loan Portfolio

Key Highlights

- Loan book +8% YoY with main growth areas being corporate and mortgage segments
- Intentionally moderated growth in 2H25 to strategically improve our loan-to-deposit ratio and strengthen balance sheet resilience
- Achieved broad-based growth across all segments, with particularly strong momentum in mortgages and renewable energy financing
- In October, completed a landmark transaction by signing a €21m financing agreement with Pure Energy Solutions for a 35 MW / 140 MWh BESS project in Lithuania

Net Fee & Commission Income

Key Highlights

- Net fees & commission income (NFCI) increased by 6% compared to the previous year
- Continued strong performance from the Asset Management and Renovation businesses
- Asset Management fees were supported by strong market performance
- Renovation financing delivered strong results, driven by the disbursement of additional funds from the latest modernization fund launched in 1H24
- The decline in daily banking was mainly attributable to a one-time cost related to the payment card rebranding initiative

Net Fee & Commission Income (€'m)

Net Fee & Commission Income YoY (€'m)

Operating Expenses

Key Highlights

- Operating expenses increased in Q4'25, primarily due to several one-off items related to the core banking system upgrade
- As part of an ongoing review of our cost base, we have already begun to realize early savings across marketing and other expenses

Notes:
(1) Adjusted Cost to income ratio exclude costs related to the core banking system upgrade, rebranding, the new office building, windfall taxes, as these are considered non-recurring

Asset Quality

Key Highlights

- A strong macroeconomic backdrop and disciplined underwriting continued to support excellent asset quality, leading to impairment reversals in Q4
- Cost of risk for 2025 stood at 0.13%
- Mortgage and consumer cost of risk was higher throughout 2025, primarily due to methodological updates rather than asset quality deterioration
- Late-stage NPLs remain very low, accounting for only 0.17% of the total portfolio
- We remain comfortable with our overall NPL position and do not expect any material changes in the near term
